13 February 2022

6st Sunday in Ordinary Time (C) - page-63

1st Reading: Jeremiah 17:5-8

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 1:1-4,6)

Happy the man who has placed his trust in the Lord.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:12,16-20

Gospel: Luke 6:17,20-26

Today's Liturgy of the Word invites us to reflect on two fundamental choices: blessing or curse, life or death. We choose the best when we put our trust in the Lord and live according to this choice. Such is the message of the Beatitudes. The Lord should be our only Treasure, our Friend, our Guide, and our final reward. In this Eucharist, we will pray in a special manner for the grace to always stay close to the Lord Jesus and live by the light of his Beatitudes. We will also pray for those who are blinded by their passions and make choices that are destructive of their dignity and endanger their eternal salvation. May all of us see the light and live according to the teaching and example of Jesus.

Have a Blessed Sunday to all!

Fr. Philip

Peace and blessing to everyone!

I'm a Filipino Rogationist Priest. I've been engaged in the Academe for the past 15 years serving as a Dean of Philosophy, a Priest-in-charge of the Pastoral Institute for Vocation Ministry, and a former School Director of the Rogationist College-Paranaque. I was also the first Superintendent of the Rogationist Schools in the Philippines. I was a member of the Deliverance and Exorcism Ministry of the Diocese of Paranaque. Currently, I am a member of the Academic Committee of the Episcopal Commission on Seminaries of the Catholic Bishops Conference of the Philippines. I am a guest lecturer at the Rogationist Seminary College of Philosophy and at Saint Paul University – Manila.

The Our Lady Help and Saint Helen is my first official parish assignment. Looking forward to be of service to you, our dearest parishoners!

- Fr. Vik A.
